Why not sign up to Waltham Forest's newsletters to find links to local family festivals, events & free craft activities? Here are just a couple of their latest summer suggestions:

Mini Morris, Fantastic Beasts is a fun and messy clay workshop at the William Morris Gallery, where imagination takes the lead. Using air-drying clay, little ones can squish, roll and create their own imagined beast. This event is free on Thursday 19 June, starting at 10am and also 11.45am.

Interactive storytelling fun for little ones and their grown-ups with the Soho Theatre Walthamstow and Magic Box on Tuesday 17 June, Tuesday 15 July, and Tuesday 22 July. Tickets start from £8, with reduced rates for Waltham Forest residents.

Italian Good Morning Song.

A few parents have asked us about the Italian song the children sing at school. We have added the words for you below, and a link to the tune.

'Buongiorno con una mano,
Buongiorno con l'altra mano,
Buongiorno e salutiamo la maestra di Italiano.
Buongiorno con un saltino,
Buongiorno con un inchino,
Buongiorno e ci sediamo al nostro piano piano!

Good morning with one hand,
Good morning with the other hand,
Good morning, let's greet our Italian teacher.
Good morning with a little jump,
Good morning with a little bow,
Good morning, and we sit down at our piano, piano.

ALPACAS VISIT

Arti & Truffle, the friendly alpacas, have had to reschedule and will now visit us on Wed 2nd July. We can't wait!

Last week at WMS.

We had a busy week learning about water transport. A fun activity involved looking for transport objects in frozen blue gel feely bags! The youngest children worked with the Dressing Frames, practising how to use buttons, Velcro fastenings and zips and the oldest children studied geometric solids.

The children made crowns to celebrate the King's birthday. They also continued with their Lowry inspired paintings.

We had an Oral Health Day on Wednesday; the children loved working with the new tooth brushing activities. There were lots of chats about how we should brush out teeth and a fun new song to learn.

Everyone made fabulous Father's Day cards and we welcomed many of you at our Father's Day Breakfast. It was a well attended event with delicious snacks, book reading & car washing! All classes contributed to the lovely decorations in the garden, including colourful bunting and specially drawn pictures.

Finally, a huge thank you to Jaya's Dad who after coming to an Open Garden Visit, wanted to help improve the garden further by giving Brookscroft lots of vegetable and herb seeds, as well as a runner bean frame!
